

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS FOR THE CANDIDATES OF OTHER BACKWARD CLASSES (OBC)

Q.1 What are reservation provisions available for the candidates of the OBC category?

A. Reservation is made for the candidates belonging to the OBC category in respect of vacancies as may be fixed by the Government. No reservation/relaxation is admissible to OBC candidates belonging to creamy layer. In the questions below, the term 'OBC' has been used to mean 'non-creamy layer OBC'.

Q.2 Are the OBC candidates eligible/allowed to apply for all the Posts/Services under any Examination/selection?

A. Yes, provided they otherwise fulfill other eligibility criteria. Reservation is, however, not available in respect of Examinations conducted for recruitment to Defence Services viz., NDA & NA Examination and Combined Defence Services Examination.

Q.3 Can the OBC candidates be considered against the vacancies reserved for them even though OBC certificate is not available?

A. No. An OBC candidate is considered against OBC vacancies only if he/she possesses a valid OBC certificate. However, such OBC candidates can always compete for the unreserved vacancies provided they fulfill the eligibility criteria of General category.

Q.4 How much age relaxation could be allowed to the candidates of OBC categories?

A. The prescribed upper age-limit of an examination (wherever applicable) is relaxable up to a maximum of 3 years in the case of candidates belonging to OBC category. Such OBC candidates, who also belong to either PwBD or Ex-servicemen category, are eligible for grant of cumulative age-relaxation under both categories.

Q.5 What are the permissible number of attempts available to the OBC category candidates in the Civil Services Examination and Indian Forest Service Examination?

A. OBC candidates are allowed nine attempts in case they are otherwise eligible.

Q.6 Are OBC category candidates required to pay application fee?

- A. The candidates of OBC category are required to make payment towards application fee.

Q.7 Whether an OBC candidate selected on his/her own merit adjusted against reserved vacancy or unreserved vacancy?

- A. A candidate of OBC category, selected on his/her own merit, without availing of any of the concessions or relaxations to which such candidates are entitled to, is recommended against unreserved vacancies. If any concessions or relaxed standards of selection is applied at any stage of selection process, such candidates will be considered against vacancy reserved for the OBC category only.

Q.8 What are the concessions and relaxations in standards of selection applicable to OBC category?

- A. The candidates of OBC category are entitled to relaxed standards of selection vis-a-vis the standards of selection adopted for General Category.

Q.9 Whether change of category is allowed in case of OBC category candidates?

- A. If the category indicated by a candidate in the application form for any Examination of the Commission is Unreserved/General category but the candidate subsequently writes to the Commission to change the category to a reserved one i.e. OBC, such request is not entertained by the Commission. Further, once a candidate has chosen a reserved category (OBC), no request is entertained for change to other reserved category. While the above principle will be followed in general, there may be a few cases where there was a gap of not more than 3 months between the issuance of a Government Notification enlisting a particular community in the list of any of the reserved communities and the date of submission of the application by the candidate. In such cases, the request of change of category from unreserved to reserved may be considered by the Commission on merit.

Q.10 Whether change of category to Unreserved/General category is allowed in case of OBC category candidates?

- A. No, the OBC candidate, other than those recommended on General Merit, shall be allowed to change their category from OBC to Unreserved/General or claim the vacancies (Service/Cadre) for Unreserved/General category after the declaration of final result by the UPSC.

Q.11 If a candidate makes any mistake while filling the Online Application Form, what will be the next step?

A. The candidate is advised to fill up another form if the link for the application form is open.
